Written for the Sentinel. WHAT MUST I DO TO BE SAVED? [Acts, xvi. 39.]

DEDICATED TO T. C. HORTON, INQ.

Hark to the one in Judah's wild, A holy man, a prophet's child; In ringing tones we hear him say, "Make straight His paths, prepare the way "The kingdom now is near at hand," "Proclaim the word throughout the land," Messiah comes, God's giorious boon,

The Lord bath come; upon the mount He telleth men of David's fount; Inquiring ones, list to His voice, (Exceeding glad be ye, rejoice.) "The law I come not to destroy. I come to bring to man great joy; So quickly now with me agree Repent, believe; joy is for thee."

Repent, believe, He cometh soon.

The Lord hath come; from place to place He goes, to offer men His grace; Sinners, the meanest He can find. The sick, the deaf, the lame and blind; All down with Him do sit at meat, And beavenly manna do they eat: "They that be whole need not a cure," Repent, believe; the word is sure.

The Lord bath come; to learn His rule A ruler of the "straightest" school, Came to Him in the hours of night; "Master, how can I get the light?" Again we hear the Savior say; "I am the light, the truth, the way," Do not marvel, He says to thee "Repent, believe, and trust in Me."

V. This word to you, dear one, to-day, Comes straight from Heaven all the way; "For God so loved the world," that He Gave His dear Son, that you and me-Through His shed blood on Calvary. From death and sin may ransomed be. The news is for all Adam's race. Repent, believe; 'tis God's' free grace.

come to the conclusion that a big newspaper in a small town, with non paying subscribers, is like wearing kid gloves to chop wood in. After looking through the Ledger-for news we conclude that he is successfully trying to handle his subjects without gloves.

A wild deer ran through the streets of Owensboro, Ky., last Saturday, and plunging into the river escaped to the Indiana shore. It is supposed that the existing state of affairs in our country at present, and the fear of being bulldozed into first-class venison, was the cause of this extraordinary movement in his deership.

A young man named Manly Booe, of Veedersburg, was loading a gun last Mon-day, when he struck it against a chair, causing it to be fired off, the contents passing into his left side, beneath the heart, passing upward to his back. There were 50 shot in the gun; most of them have been aken out by the attending physician.

Thursday night the city marshal of Crawfordsville arrested two parties from Indianapolis, who gave their names as Hare and Moses, son of the spectacle man. They are accused of having laid a plot to release from jail George Wilson, of Indianapolis, lately sentenced to the state prison for grand larceny. They had procured tools for that purpose.

Graphic Evansville Journal: A downtown house of ill-fame was entirely gutted in the course of an hour last night. There was a jealous fight among the inmatesseveral lone, lorn, black eyes, a sprinkling of parti-colored hair about the rooms, and at o'clock the whole house had packed their trunks and left the keeper standing alone like Marius among the ruins of Carthage.

New Albany Ledger-Standard: A quiet, well disposed man, who lives near Lanesville, while coming to the city with a load of produce, on Wednesday evening about 4 o'clock, was assaulted on the Corydon road, just outside the city limits, and robbed of $50. Three ruffians were engaged in the outrage, and made their escape with the booty. The men asked Miller whom he voted for, and fwhen he told them he voted for Tilden, they threw him out of the wagon and broke his shoulder blade.
